Did you know that local organizations EPEL (Elgin Partnership for Early Learning) and Give Me Five can help you find the right childcare for your family? Visit their table or websites for individualized assistance.

Give Me Five! is a program that partners with Families, Early Learning Programs, School and the Community to ensure that all young children are prepared for learning in kindergarten.

The Give Me Five! message emphasizes that parents are a child's first and most important teacher and that learning begins at BIRTH!

Give Me Five! focuses on a child's need to:

- Talk: listen to stories, hear new words
- Play: learn rules and strategies for interaction with others
- Read: recognize letters, letter sounds, words have meaning
- Do: be an active explorer of the world using all five senses, counting
- Write: using play dough, crayons and scissors

Elgin Partnership for Early Learning (EPEL) is the early childhood collaboration for the community. We partner with community organizations like Gail Borden Library, U-46, Give Me FIVE, United Way, childcare centers, in-home care providers, medical centers, home visitors, businesses and families for support and a shared vision of having all children ready for kindergarten and life. Parenting isn't easy, so we offer an 844-KID-INFO in English and Spanish to help you make connections for childcare programs, child care assistance funding information, developmental screenings and a website of resources.

What makes your school unique?

Bethlehem Lutheran Child Development Center is a small Christian based daycare that seeks to provide a warm physically safe atmosphere of love, concern, support and acceptance for all children. Our program acknowledges that each child is a unique individual with their own pattern and timing of growth. Each child has an individual personality, separate learning style and family background. Our program provides an appropriate curriculum for all areas of a child's development: physical, emotional (ability to express feelings and to have good self-esteem), social, cognitive (stages of learning through senses, thought, and hands-on experiences), and spiritual.

What makes your school unique?

Our proprietary COA Mind & Body Matters program is one-of-a-kind and supports the development of the whole child. Combining four powerful components our system is designed to educate young minds, advance reading skills and convey the benefits of nutrition and fitness. This platform supports the fundamental belief that parents and educators play a crucial role in helping children develop a passion for education, the written word, fitness and healthy eating choices. As child development experts we believe it is our duty to bring the best in resources to the children and families we serve. That is the COA difference and what we call the "COA Experience".

We will work with children's dietary needs. Children's Home & Aid also has the Marletta Darnall Schaumburg Child & Family Center, located at 725 E Schaumburg Road in Schaumburg. This is a Head Start agency and has similar services. Both centers have Family Support Specialists on staff to help the families connect to resources to meet their other needs.

What makes your school unique?

We believe children learn best through their play and interactions with their peers. Our goal is to provide a safe and consistent environment that supports children's learning and development. Our staff utilize the Teaching Strategies Curriculum in their lesson planning. We offer a wide variety of well-planned activities that encourage exploration, experimentation and creativity. We achieve these goals by providing age appropriate and individualized activities for each child. We also value the participation of our parents and families in the education of their children. We offer regular parent/family activities and have a Father Engagement Program. Children in our Prevention Initiative Program receive regular home visits.

We are a private, faith-based academy that goes from ages 3-12th grade. At our Preschool, our students are engaged with a full curriculum, truly preparing them for Kindergarten and beyond. Our classrooms have floor-ceiling windows and we sit on 80 acres of land, allowing our students to be immersed into the outdoors and sensory learning. Inherently, we are a play-based Preschool, with an entire program and director dedicated to Music and Movement. Our Preschool and Pre-Kindergarten students are thriving and learning. We would love for you to come and experience HCA!
