

GAIL BORDEN PUBLIC LIBRARY DISTRICT

POLICIES FOR USE OF COMMUNITY ROOMS

The primary purpose of the Gail Borden Public Library community rooms is to provide facilities for Library activities and functions. When the rooms are not needed for Library use, they may be made available for meetings and programs and professional organizations with which the library is affiliated, according to the following levels as determined by designated library officials:

1. Governmental tax supported agencies and professional organizations with which the library is affiliated
2. Educational, cultural, recreational or civic organizations located within the library district
3. Other organizations located within the library district
4. Educational, cultural, recreational or civic organizations located outside the library district
5. Other organizations located outside the library district

ENDORSEMENT

The library is not responsible for the content of the meetings held. Use of the library meeting room facilities by groups does not constitute library endorsement of the philosophies, practices or viewpoints of the meeting participants. The Executive Director or a designated staff member must review handout literature and press releases in advance of the scheduled meeting. The following disclaimer must be included in all written publicity material about the event:

The Gail Borden Public Library District provides library meeting space as a community service. The library Neither sponsors nor endorses this event nor the presenting individual(s) or organization(s).

FACILITIES AVAILABLE

1. Main level:
 - One large community room with a seating capacity of 240 persons, depending on usage of tables. The large community room can be subdivided into three smaller rooms.
 - Room A (65) (with stage)
 - Room B (85)
 - Room C (85)
 - Computer Training Room Capacity (10 computers/seating for 20 + 1 instructional station)
2. Second level:
 - one conference room with a seating capacity of 36.

NOTE: Meeting room capacity shall not exceed the maximum number of people allowed by the Fire Department.

RESERVATIONS

1. Registration of an organization must be submitted prior to filing the application for use of the community rooms.
2. Application for use of the community rooms must be made on the form provided and returned to the Administration Office with all required fees at least 10 working days prior to the meeting date. No reservation will be made until all of the applicable fees are paid.
3. The person signing the "Community Room Reservation Form" must be 18 years of age or older, and willing to assume responsibility for the group as well as any fees or damages. The person signing the form must be a Gail Borden Library District resident with a currently valid Gail Borden Library card. A representative of an organization outside the district must present a valid driver license.

3. For best availability, rooms may be booked up to 4 months in advance.
4. Organizations may reserve a community room no more than once in any given month.
5. Changes in room arrangement or equipment must be requested and paid for at least 48 hours in advance (Monday through Friday).
6. Confirmation of reservations will be made at time of payment.

GENERAL RULES

1. All meetings must be open to the public.
2. Meeting room use is subject to all other library policies and regulations, including the library ethics ordinance.
3. No admission fees may be charged or donations collected for programs.
4. Direct solicitation or sales of goods or services is prohibited.
5. Library personnel must have free access to community rooms at all times. The library retains the right to monitor all meetings conducted on the premises to ensure compliance with Library regulations.
6. Any member of the public who wishes to attend a meeting in one of the library's public community rooms must be allowed to do so.
7. The library does not provide assistance in transporting supplies to the community rooms or help with organizations equipment.
8. Signs or other decorations may not be taped to walls or doors. Please consult with library staff members for alternatives.
9. Promotion of or advertising of a program may include the library's name and address but not the library's telephone number. In no way can advertisements suggest library sponsorship of the organization's program.
10. No group meeting in the library may use the library as a mailing address.
11. Light refreshments may be served or brought in, however no kitchen facilities are available. No food preparation is allowed in the community rooms. The library café is available for purchase of beverages and light refreshments. The organization will need to make direct contact, arrangements, and payment to the café. A $10.00 maintenance fee will be charged if food or drink is served.
12. Community rooms are available during the Library's regular hours, as follows:
 - Monday through Thursday – 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.
 - Friday and Saturday - 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.
 - Sunday - 1:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.Rooms will be made available one-half hour before scheduled meeting time after the library is opened to the public. The library opens at 9:00 a.m. or 1:00 p.m. The room will not be available until those times. If arrangements are made at least two weeks in advance, a community room may be used after the library's regularly scheduled closing. The building must be vacated within two hours of the regularly scheduled closing. A charge will be assessed, by the hour, for additional staff. Any portion of an hour is charged as a full hour. This payment must be made in advance with all other relevant fees.
13. Children under 8 yrs of age may not be sent to other areas of the library without a parent or responsible caregiver. Please refer to the library's Unattended Child Policy.
14. Rooms are not available for social functions such as parties, dances, showers, etc or when promoting or causing the sale of property or services for monetary gain.

EQUIPMENT

1. Equipment requested for a meeting MUST be reserved at the time the room is booked due to limited availability.
2. For available equipment, see page 6, Equipment Fee Schedule.
3. GRAND PIANO
A grand piano is available for rental. Community Room A must be booked in for its use. An additional $300.00 refundable deposit must be received at the time of registration. It will be refunded after the event if found to be in good condition. The library keeps the piano reasonably in tune by having a piano technician tune it several times a year. However, if an organization requests a special tuning, the library will attempt to have it tuned in time for the event. The cost will be charged to the organization.
4. COMPUTER TRAINING ROOM
An additional $300.00 refundable deposit must be received at the time of registration. It will be refunded after the event if all equipment is found to be in good condition.

ADDITIONAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

The following rules and regulations apply to all groups using the meeting rooms:

1. Any use of rooms that disrupts the normal operations of the library will not be permitted. The Library expects organizations to be considerate of library customers and activities. The Library reserves the right to stop meetings that are disruptive to normal library operations.
2. Smoking is not permitted anywhere in the Library or on library grounds.
3. Alcoholic beverages may not be served or consumed.
4. Groups whose members are under the age of eighteen must be accompanied by one adult chaperon for each fifteen participants.
5. Groups are expected to take care when using rooms. Waste should be thrown in containers that are provided.
6. Hazardous materials including, but not limited to, paints, solvents and explosives are prohibited.
7. Groups using the facilities must comply with the Americans for Disabilities Act and upon one week's notice are responsible for providing qualified interpreters and/or auxiliary aids as requested.
8. The Library reserves the right to cancel or relocate any scheduled meeting if circumstances warrant.

DAMAGES AND LIABILITY

The Library is not responsible for the loss of or damage to any equipment or materials owned or rented by an individual, group or organization using its meeting rooms. Any individual, group or organization using the meeting rooms shall be held responsible for willful or accidental damage to the Library building, grounds, collections or equipment caused by the group or organization, its members or those attending its program.

FINAL AUTHORITY FOR MEETING ROOM USE

The Library Executive Director is the final authority in determining use of the community rooms. Failure to abide by the Library's meeting room policy and rules of conduct may result in the cancellation or refusal of future reservations.

If on the advice of law enforcement professionals, the library staff or board determines that a reasonable possibility of a threat to the safety of library staff, patrons, or members of the public might occur, based on prior experience of the group or speaker at this library or at other occasions where a group had held meetings which have been disruptive or had a potential for violence, the following shall be required:

The individual group reserving the community room shall be required to pay in advance by cashier's check the reasonable estimated cost of any special security measures needed to be taken for the meeting; and the individual or group reserving the meeting room will obtain a special event policy for $1,000,000 for injury or damage to property occurring at the meeting.

ROOM RATES

Room level rates are based on rental of the room for each 3-hour period with the standard set-up (2 tables in the front and auditorium style seating). Rates are doubled for a custom set-up.

Level One	No Charge
Level Two	$25.00/3-hour period
Level Three	$50.00/3-hour period
Level Four	$75.00/3-hour period
Level Five	$100.00/3-hour period

Rates are doubled for use of the Computer Training Room.

GAIL BORDEN PUBLIC LIBRARY

REGISTRATION FOR USE OF COMMUNITY ROOMS

Every organization that wishes to use community rooms at the Gail Borden Library must first submit information about the organization. The library will review the registration form to determine whether the organization meets the required guidelines for meeting room privileges. Please allow a seven (7) day period for this process. If approved, the organization may then request an APPLICATION FOR USE OF A MEETING ROOM. This application along with payment must be received at least 10 days, (Monday-Friday) before the date of the meeting.
